

sacrifice. When they use Dhâyyâs and Yâjyâs different from those which are prescribed, then they uproot the sacrifice. Therefore they (the Dhâyyâs and Yâjyâs) should be only of the same nature (they should not use other ones than those mentioned).

The Vais'vadeva Shastra belongs to five classes of beings. It belongs to all five classes of beings, viz : Gods and Men, Gandharvas (and) Apsaras,²³ Serpents and Manes. To all these five classes of beings belongs the Vais'vadeva Shastra. All beings of these five classes know him (the Hotar who repeats the Vais'vadeva Shastra). To that Hotar who has such a knowledge come those individuals of these five classes of beings who understand the art of recitation (to assist him). The Hotar who repeats the Vais'vadeva Shastra belongs to all deities. When he is about to repeat his Shastra, he ought to think of all directions (have them before his mind), by which means he provides all these directions with liquid (rasa). But he ought not to think of that direction in which his enemy lives. By doing so he consequently deprives him of his strength.

He concludes (the Vais'vadeva Shastra) with the verse aditir dyâur aditir antariksham (1, 89, 10), i. e. Aditi is heaven, Aditi is the air, Aditi is mother, father and son ; Aditi is all gods ; Aditi is the five classes of creatures ; Aditi is what is born ; Aditi is what is to be born." She (Aditi) is mother, she is father, she is son. In her are the Vais'vedevas, in her the five classes of creatures. She is what is born, she is what is to be born.

(When reciting this concluding verse which is to be repeated thrice), he recites it twice (for the second and third times) so as to stop at each (of the four) padas. (He does so) for obtaining cattle, which are
